

PRESS RELEASE: SKY NEWS AND RIVERHEAD INVESTMENTS

Tuesday 20 October 2015

Sky News and Riverhead Investments of Hamilton Bermuda are delighted to announce a partnership in the Canadian and Caribbean markets. Sky News was the first British 24/7 breaking news network when it launched in 1989 and has become one of the most respected news outlets in the world.

Riverhead Investments will act as the distribution agent for Sky News, working with TV platforms in the territories to bring the channel to new audiences.

John Ryley, Head of Sky News, commented: "This is a terrific opportunity to bring our award winning news service and outstanding original journalism to a new audience. We are currently available in 127 countries and under this agreement with Riverhead, we will deliver Sky News to the important Canadian and Caribbean markets."

Ms. Ann Petley-Jones, CEO of Riverhead Investments, said: "We are excited at this great opportunity to bring Sky News to a wider audience. Sky News is famous for the quality of its news service. It is a wonderful international brand backed by a news team with a track record of innovation and success. Riverhead is delighted to be partnered with such a group."
